“ Dear Myles Family,

My mother, husband and I were deeply saddened to learn of your wonderful father's passing; my family first knew him through my Aunt Gert and Uncle Jimmy and in more recent years, as our neighbor on Sylvia's Lane. He was such a warm and friendly man, and the cottage will seem so very empty now that he is reunited with your beautiful mother in heaven. My mother enjoyed her spirited political discussions with him over a glass of wine, and of course, reminiscing over happy memories of family and friends.

With deepest sympathy,

Pam and Jim Palumbo and Clare Ready

“ To all the Myles Family,

We were saddened to learn of Ed's passing. Ed was a wonderful next door neighbor for the last 20 years., and we had great conversations every time we would see each other in passing. My family offers our condolences to the whole family. He was a really great guy.

“ Really sorry to hear of Ed's passing. So many memories. I shall miss my quahogging buddy. The great conversations that Barbara and I had with Ed and Chick over dinner at Fred and Ann's after the 4:30 mass at St. Johns. Our many trips together and all the laughs at Atlantic City. The summer parties that they and we and Dave and Sue Raposa hosted here at Sylvia's Lane. Well Ed, I am sure that the Westport River quahogs are now breathing a sigh of relief. May God hold you in the palm of his hands.

“ Kathlyn, Mary, and Ed.....deeply saddened to see the passing of your dad. My parents, Ann and Arthur Haley were part a unique circle of friends that included Eddy and 'Chicky', George and Margret Burns, and Jimmy and Gert O'Brien that enjoyed countless hours together.

My mom passed a couple months ago, as we were preparing her services we went through hundreds of pictures, many of which included your mom and dad. They were always laughing and enjoying life to its fullest. They just enjoyed being together, traveling, at Belanger's Swansea Cottage, Westport River, or Round Meadows at the Burns trailer.

Impossible not to miss them but, they 'did it all' as my mom would say right up until she passed at 95.

My Condolences to the whole family through these difficult times.

“ Our deepest heartfelt sympathy to the entire family. Will remember all the times he picked us up at the Boy's Club and how he came to our rescue those many years ago when the car broke down in front of "Chick's Cafe". A wonderful man and father, he will be missed. Love Sandi, Eric, Dan & Liz

“ My heart is heavy knowing that Uncle Eddie is no longer in the world. Thankfully, however, he is now with Aunt Chickie. May they both rest in peace.

Love,
