“ Thinking of you all during this difficult time. You all took such great care of her when I would visit it was so obvious how happy and comfortable she was. I can still picture her sitting in her chair under her blanket with her headphones on. She used to make me laugh that she would always be wearing her sunglasses or a headband. She was simply the sweetest. I could go on and on with the stories that I remember her telling me but you all know since you were right there with her. I can only imagine the amazing memories that will stay with you all.

Thinking of you all,
Liz Camara
