

Raymond L. Gamache, III

April 30, 2018

Raymond L. Gamache, III, 41, of Rochester passed away unexpectedly Monday, April 30, 2018.

He was born in New Bedford, son of Raymond Gamache, Jr. of Dartmouth and Patricia A. (King) Cullen and her husband Thomas of Rochester, Ray lived most of his life, in Wareham, where he graduated from high school.

He had worked as a commercial fisherman and a self employed carpenter. Ray loved the outdoors and was very athletic. He enjoyed surfing and snowboarding, played semi pro football for the Middleboro Cobra's and enjoyed cooking.

He is survived by his parents; his maternal grandfather, Milton King of Falmouth; paternal grandmother, Florence Gamache of Fairhaven; a son, Raymond L. Gamache, IV of NC; three brothers, Mark Arone and his wife Meagan of Lakeville, Bradford Arone and his wife Danae of Marion and Julian Gamache of New Bedford; three sisters, Amy Gamache-Blood of Marion, Erin Bishop and her husband Robert of Rochester and Victoria Gamache of Dartmouth; and several aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Calling hours are Friday, from 4-7pm, in the Fairhaven Funeral Home, 117 Main St., Fairhaven.

His funeral will be Saturday, May 5, 2018, at 9:00am, from the funeral home followed by a Mass of Christian Burial, at 10:00am, in St. Joseph's Church, Fairhaven. Interment will be in Centre Cemetery, Rochester.

“ Ray you were a beast to grow up with funny , kind, handsome , big but not a fighter and one hell of a carpenter. Did you ever think being the burnout would lead to this? Let's all learn the bitter lessons you are teaching us and appreciate everyone who is still around us. I know your energy is floating all around us and you'll be known when necessary, see you in the next life .

To my family..

We all just lost one of us, now we are incomplete. It is at this time we pull together and remember what makes are family so special... Ray can never be replaced nor-forgotten. He was loved so very much!!

Ray could always make me laugh... And I knew without a doubt Everytime I ran into Ray I was getting one of those great BIG Raymond hugs that could just put you at peace....

Ray had a big heart, caring person and loved his family & son very much... Some people may have seen Ray a different person but his family truly knows Ray and let me tell you... I'm proud of my cousin... For fighting all these years... I love you Ray always... Go rest & finally be at peace.... Xoxo
