

Richard (“Rick”) A. Engler

March 30, 2018

Richard (“Rick”) A. Engler, 52 years old, died suddenly, in Taunton, on March 30, 2018, from a fall at his home.

He was born in Taunton, son of the late Richard and Barbara (Johnston) Engler. A former resident of Dighton, he was a graduate of Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School and he then attended Dean College. For over 30 years, Rick was a heavy equipment operator for Aggregate Industries, in Taunton. Rick most enjoyed the time he spent with his sons, especially fishing. Car shows, swap meets and anything Dodge were among his favorite hobbies.

He is survived by his two sons, Richard C. Engler and Douglas C. Engler, and his former wife Cheryl Engler, all of Rhode Island. He was also the father of the late Holly M. Engler. Rick is the brother of Regina Almeda and her husband Jeffrey of Berkley and he is the uncle of Katie and Kelsey Almeda.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend Visiting Hours on Saturday, April 7, 2018, from 9 to 11 AM, in the Crapo-Hathaway Funeral Home, 350 Somerset Ave, (Route 138 South), Taunton, with a Funeral Service, at 11AM.

Interment Fox Cemetery, Berkley.

“ Regina, I am so so sorry for your loss. My heart aches for his boys. Rick was like another son to me. This is so hard to believe. Know that our hearts go out to you and the rest of the family. This kind of shock is hard to get over. We are all stunned!
Love you.
Marie, John and the boys.

“ Ricky,
I am so sorry to hear about the sudden and untimely passing of your father. I fondly remember your dad from his years in elementary school. He was a classmate of my daughter and he was a fun loving kid. I was shocked and saddened to learn of his passing. My deepest sympathy on your loss and you are in my thoughts and prayers. Sending my love to you and your family in this time of sorrow.
Love, Diane Rasmussen
