

Sandra S. "Sandy" Bogus

January 22, 2019

Sandra S. "Sandy" Bogus, 70, of Fall River, passed away on Tuesday, January 22, 2019, at Catholic Memorial Home. She was the wife of James M. Waring.

Born in Fall River, she was the daughter of the late Hyman and the late Margot (Lowenstein) Bogus. Sandy worked as a French and Spanish teacher in Fall River and she was adored by her students. She was also an accomplished dog trainer of German Shepherds. Sandy was an avid runner and marathoner. She also traveled extensively around the world with good friends. She studied in France as an undergraduate and as a graduate student at the Sorbonne in Paris, where she obtained her Master's Degree.

Survivors besides her husband are, a brother Tilden Bogus and his wife Candyce of Rochester, MA; and several nieces and nephews.

Sandy's family will receive relatives and friends on Saturday, January 26, 2019, from 11am-1pm, with words of remembrance to follow at 1pm, in the Hathaway Home for Funerals, 1813 Robeson Street, Fall River.

Flowers are to be omitted, instead, donations can be made in Sandra's name to the Alzheimer's Association, 473 South Street West, Unit #13, Raynham, MA, 02767.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Sandy. My memories of her running up and down Highland Avenue and walking three German Shepherds together, will never fade. Sandy had a quiet dignity about her and she was always a pleasure to speak to her. Fly with the angels Sandy.

“ Jim and Tilden,

I think I knew Sandy for sixty-five or so years. It was always wonderful to see her especially when she would run past our house on Valentine Street - with or without her dogs. Sad day but hopefully a better place for her.
Sincerely,
Irving Zangwill and Maureen
