

William (Bill) F. Nuttall

December 22, 2017

William (Bill) F. Nuttall, 82, of Tiverton, formerly of Fall River, passed away Friday, December 22, 2017, at Brookdale Sakonnet Bay, in Tiverton, following a lengthy illness. He was the brother of Chester (Ted) T. Nuttall Jr. of Wilkesboro, North Carolina.

A lifelong resident of Fall River, Bill was the son of the late Chester T. and Emma F. (Tripp) Nuttall. After graduating from Durfee High School, in 1954, he worked for the Fall River Department of Public Welfare for 34 years before retiring, in 1990.

Bill was a true New Englander. He enjoyed sharing stories of his travels throughout the area, but his favorite places were always those close to home: summering in Westport Point, taking in the view of the Sakonnet or gathering with neighbors, friends, and family.

Bill would tell you that he lived his life for his parents and to be good to others, and he will be remembered fondly for his thoughtful and generous nature and for his sense of humor and contagious laugh. He was well known and loved by all in the Highland neighborhood he'd called home for most of his life, and not much happened there without him being in the know. For the past two years of his life, he lived at Brookdale Sakonnet Bay, where he made many new friends and was cared for with love and compassion. Bill was also a dedicated parishioner of Holy Name Church, in Fall River, and a longtime member of the Fall River Historical Society.

Bill is survived by his brother Ted and Ted's companion Laura Jeraldine Greene. He was affectionately known as Cousin Bill by his cousins and their families and is survived by Marie Boyd Landry of Tiverton, Ann Boyd Ivancie of Denver, Colorado, Ellen Boyd of Midlothian, Virginia, and their families, as well the family of the late William J. Boyd.

Calling Hours for Bill will be held on Saturday morning, December 30, 2017, from 8:30am to 9:30am, in the Hathaway Home for Funerals, 1813 Robeson Street, Fall River, followed by a Mass of Christian burial at 10am, in Holy Name Church, 709 Hanover Street, Fall River. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

Burial to follow in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Fall River.

Memorial donations in his memory can be made to the Fall River Historical Society, 451 Rock Street, Fall River, MA 02720.

“ I lived next door to "Billy" Nutall, his brother, his aunt and his parents for about twenty-five wonderful years. As the family passed away or moved on, Billy held down the fort. You'd have to have known Billy to call an 82 year old man "Billy." As the neighborhood changed Billy never did. He was the fine man he had been all those years ago. It was always a pleasure to run into him at the grocery store or wherever. Always brought back good memories. He will be missed by many. My wife, Maureen, and my sister Sheila join me in wishing you well, Ted.
